

FAR NORTH COAST AREA ABORIGINAL TRANSPORT STRATEGIC PLAN 2006 - 2007

Goal	Actions to achieve this goal	Who will do this	When it will be completed	Review Status
It is the responsibility of the whole organisation to be involved in and supportive of Aboriginal Transport.	Management Committee/Board members attend Aboriginal cultural activities.
	All staff and Management Committee attend Aboriginal cultural awareness training provided by local Aboriginal people
	Policies are developed to ensure equity of access to service for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.
	Office staff are able to take bookings and respond to transport requests from Aboriginals.

FAR NORTH COAST AREA ABORIGINAL TRANSPORT STRATEGIC PLAN 2006 - 2007

Goal	Actions to achieve this goal	Who will do this	When it will be completed	Review Status
The Aboriginal Transport Development worker is supported in the role of transport development	All staff and management committee understand the role of the ATDWO.
	All staff and management committee have a role in supporting him/her.
	The ATDO is provided with training in areas where skills development is necessary
	Network: Regular meetings for the ATDO network are supported.  Culturally appropriate guidelines are developed, e.g. funeral leave.

FAR NORTH COAST AREA ABORIGINAL TRANSPORT STRATEGIC PLAN 2006 - 2007

Goal	Actions to achieve this goal	Who will do this	When it will be completed	Review Status
Transport for Aboriginal people is offered in a culturally appropriate way

FAR NORTH COAST AREA ABORIGINAL TRANSPORT STRATEGIC PLAN 2006 - 2007

Goal	Actions to achieve this goal	Who will do this	When it will be completed	Review Status
Transport for Aboriginal people recognizes the unique history of Aboriginal people as non users of community services and works towards dissolving historical barriers.

FAR NORTH COAST AREA ABORIGINAL TRANSPORT STRATEGIC PLAN 2006 - 2007

Goal	Actions to achieve this goal	Who will do this	When it will be completed	Review Status
Aboriginal transport is provided to meet transport needs as identified by Aboriginal people

FAR NORTH COAST AREA ABORIGINAL TRANSPORT STRATEGIC PLAN 2006 - 2007

Goal	Actions to achieve this goal	Who will do this	When it will be completed	Review Status
A vision of further development of transport for Aboriginal people on the Far North Coast is created by involving Aboriginal people

FAR NORTH COAST AREA ABORIGINAL TRANSPORT STRATEGIC PLAN 2006 - 2007

Goal	Actions to achieve this goal	Who will do this	When it will be completed	Review Status
To support and resource Aboriginal Communities to develop knowledge and expertise in transport management and service delivery.	Help establish committees of groups with an interest in transport.			